

24

Million kids nationwide have been exposed to e-cigarette advertising.

15

Percent of St. Mary's County middle school students have tried electronic vapor products.

42

Percent of St. Mary's County high school students have tried electronic vapor products.

9

Chemicals present in typical e-cigarette vapor that have been identified as carcinogenic or reproductive toxins.

VAPING by the NUMBERS

94

Percent of St. Mary's County high school students who use vaping products also use flavorings.

25

The average age that the brain stops growing. Until then, youth are far more prone to addiction than adults, especially to nicotine.

3000

Number of calls to poison control centers for exposure to e-cigarette devices and liquid nicotine. (2015)

60

Percent, nationally, of high school smokers who also use e-cigarettes.

ST. MARY'S COUNTY
HEALTH DEPARTMENT

Paid for by the Maryland Cigarette Restitution Fund.

VapeAware

Get The Facts.

For information on the potential risks of vaping and e-cigarettes, please visit:
www.smchd.org/vapeaware