Talking about the “T” in LGBTQIA: Understanding Transgender Concerns

By Sean Lare, LCSW-C
Psychotherapist and Transgender Advocate

Thursday, October 12 6-8 p.m.

Leonardtown Campus, A206 (Auditorium)

This program delivers an in-depth understanding of the differences between biological/natal sex, gender identity, gender expression and sexual orientation, and why these distinctions matter. Come learn about unique challenges for individuals who are transgender, and how you can support transgender and gender non-conforming people across the lifespan and in a variety of settings.
