TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

Take Back the Night (TBTN) is a worldwide movement to stand up against sexual violence of all forms.

Thursday, April 10
6:30pm – 8:00pm
St. Mary's College of Maryland
Campus Center

Join us as we come together to support survivors, share resources, and raise awareness. This event is open to the campus and local community.

Event Schedule

Guest Speakers – Representatives from the Southern Maryland Center for Family Advocacy will speak about their work in preventing interpersonal violence.

Student Speak Out – Attendees will have the opportunity to speak out and share their stories.

Resource Tabling – Various organizations will be present on the Campus Center patio to provide information and support.

The Clothesline Project – A powerful display honoring survivors will be set up on the Campus Center patio throughout the event.

Solidarity Walk – A two-lap walk around St. John's Pond, starting and ending at the Campus Center.

Performance – Enjoy a special performance by The Nightingales A Capella.

Therapy Animals – Pets on Wheels will be in attendance with therapy animals to provide comfort and support.

Reception – A small gathering with sandwiches and cookies will follow the walk.

We hope you'll join us in standing together, showing support, and creating a space of healing and solidarity.
